

Religious Studies GCSE

Religious Studies

Exam Board: Edexcel

Duration: 1 Year

What is it worth? 1 GCSE

Why take this course? Who is it for?

For those students who have enjoyed studying RE at Key Stage 3 and wish to study further to gain a recognised GCSE qualification. The proposed units of study focus on Religion and Life based on a study of Christianity and at least one other religion and Religion and Society based on a study of Christianity and at least one other religion.

What does this course involve?

Learn about the beliefs, values and traditions of Christianity and one other religion. Consider the influence of the beliefs, values and traditions associated with Christianity and one more religion(s).

Consider religious and other responses to moral issues.

What possible progression routes are available after taking this course?

AS Religious Studies

'A' Level Religious Studies

Degree in Religious Studies

Degree in Humanities

What are the special features?

The opportunity to study this subject and gain a recognised qualification.

Course emphasis on religion and its place in life and society, therefore making it relevant to current issues and more accessible in terms of identification with the world that surrounds students today.

What possible careers follow on from this course?

Any job requiring knowledge of Religion (including roles within public services, human resources and religious organisations).

Teaching

Further education lecturer

How you will be assessed?

A written Edexcel examination will take place at the end of the course of study.

Who do I see for further information? Mrs Swain

New Course for 2012